FR. BEN'S COLUMNChristmas Message from Fr. Ben

At my parents' home in Dublin, we have a front room that we rarely use. We only use it when the parish priest comes to visit or for special occasions like weddings, parties, and around Christmas time. Then we light a big fire in the fireplace, put a big Christmas tree up, and we place presents under that tree. On Christmas afternoon, all the family come to visit, my brothers and sisters with their children, and my brother David, an idiot among idiots, in fact king of the idiots, dresses as Santa and distributes the gifts. Except for having to listen to my brother, it's really a great time and the kids love it.

A few years ago, I was able to go home for Christmas, and the first thing I did was investigate the front room. I was amazed to see that one whole side of the room was filled, floor to ceiling, wall to wall, with gifts all decorated in colorful wrapping paper. I was amazed, shocked and a little sad. It was really too much. For children who have everything, this was overboard. Sometimes we can be caught up in the superficial, the passing, and the illusions of this world.

Fortunately, my nieces and nephews, and now great nieces and nephews, have great parents, they want for nothing, and they are surrounded by love and affection. They are also taught to care for each other and for others. They are generous and kind, as well as mischievous and fun loving. They are great kids. This is how they have been raised, this is who they are, because this is who their parents are, and these are their parents' values. Now these values are true gifts. These values will be passed on to their children so they will also grow up in warm, kind, compassionate, generous, and joyful homes. That's a gift from my parents to their children, and a gift from my brothers and sisters to their children, and it will be a gift from my nieces and nephews to their children. These are gifts worth having and they are given from fathers and mothers to their sons and daughters, from generation to generation.

During a recent school Mass, I asked the children "Why do we give gifts to each other at Christmas?" Immediately one of the littlest ones said: "It reminds us that God gave us the gift of Jesus at Christmas." What a wonderful answer from such a tiny little scholar. God gave us the gift of His own Son at Christmas. Now, with that insight reflecting what is in her heart, that little child has been given a great gift from her parents. I'm sure the same is true for all our children. Passing on the values of Jesus into the hearts of our children is a gift that is worth having and it is a gift that will bless generations to come. At Christmas, be sure to pass on the most important gift of all – faith in a little Child born in a manger.

Wishing you all a blessed and happy Christmas and every grace in the New Year.

Fr. Ben

FROM FR. JIM

For the past two months, or one sixth of the year, our society has been pointing to Christmas. I saw the first Christmas ad at the end of October. There have been Christmas trees and wreaths, lights and tinsel, carols and cookies, Santa Claus and Rudolph, parties and cards, and gifts purchased. In many ways, all of that is the wrapping for the best gift of all: God's gift of self to us in the person of Jesus, born of Mary in Bethlehem, wrapped in swaddling clothes, and laid in a manger!

In the gift of Jesus, God has embraced the human race and human history. Christmas is the celebration of that embrace! And God embraces not just human life,... but my life,... and your life! God embraces not just human history in general,... but my history,... my story,... and your story! The Good News is that God embraces you...God embraces me!

In the midst of all the wrappings this Christmas, don't miss the gift! May you experience God's personal embrace! May that experience bring you joy and peace during the Christmas season and throughout the new year!

- Fr. Jim

MASS INTENTIONS

Offering a Mass for a special intention is a long-standing tradition in the Catholic Church. Masses are offered for many reasons: In remembrance of someone deceased; A living person who is sick or suffering; A living person who is celebrating a birthday, anniversary, or another special moment in their life; In thanksgiving to God (including the Lord Jesus or the Holy Spirit); or a special prayer intention. We have several daily Masses over the next few weeks that we do not have a Mass Intention scheduled. If you would like to schedule a Mass, stop in the parish office, or call 513-471-7741, ext. 0.

GIVING TREE THANK-YOU

Thank you to everyone who took a tag from our Giving Trees and returned gifts so beautifully wrapped. Through your efforts, you have helped many children and families have a nice Christmas. Special thanks to the team of elves who wrote out the tags and suggestions. For those who were not able to take a tag – thanks for donating money so the elves were able to shop. May God bless all of you for your generous time, effort, and cash donation in making it a better Christmas for so many people you don't even know.

LOVE YOUR SCHOOL AND WANT AN OHIO TAX CREDIT?

The Catholic Education Foundation for the Archdiocese of Cincinnati (CEF) has been certified by Ohio as a scholarship-granting organization (SGO). In keeping with the mission of CEF and the regulations of an SGO, CEF-SGO provides financial-need-based scholarships to students in grades K-12 within the Catholic schools of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati. Supporting students and their formation through Catholic Education, is a great way to share our blessings and faith with younger generations. The CEF-SGO may now allow for Catholic Education supporters to be able to receive a tax credit for their generosity. If you would like to donate specifically to St. Dominic School, you can earmark the donation in a donation to The Catholic Education Foundation for the Archdiocese of Cincinnati as "St. Dominic School." Donations can easily be made online at CatholicBestChoice.org/SGO.

Ohio taxpayers who donate to SGOs may be able to claim a dollar-for-dollar, non-refundable tax credit on their state income tax return for up to $750.00 per donor (up to $1,500.00 if married and filing jointly). Please consult with your tax advisor to determine your eligibility for the tax credit, its value to you, and the details of your gift.
