FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Let's not miss the religious significance of the feast we celebrate this weekend, All Saints, and its vigil, "All Hallows Eve," or Halloween. We celebrate all the saints in our long history as a people of faith. Our church statues and windows remind us of some of them. Don't forget the saints in your own story of faith. We all have people in our lives who have influenced and inspired us for good. The feast of All Saints is the time to remember them and thank God for them.

November is a month-long celebration of the communion of saints and the remembrance of those who have gone before us. We miss the physical presence of those who gave us life, who shared our lives, who loved us, and whom we loved. We miss them! And while the Scriptures are filled with "the sure and certain hope" of resurrection and reunion, we sometimes experience their spiritual presence with us in this life. I find it often happens in solitude and silence in "Communion" after receiving Christ in the Eucharist.

We will have our traditional Memorial Mass at 7:00 p.m. on Monday, November 2, for all those who have died during the past year. This is always a moving and comforting liturgy. We have experienced deep grief and sorrow as a parish family this year.

– Fr. Jim

IN MEMORIAM

Please pray for the souls of Cliff Hesse and Fr. Carl Tenhundfeld who died this past week. May they rest in the peace of the Lord.

MEMORIAL MASS

On Monday evening, November 2 at 7:00 p.m., all members of our parish who have died this past year will be remembered in a special way at our Memorial Mass. We encourage all families, friends, and fellow parishioners to join us in song and prayer. Prelude and candle lighting begins at 6:45 p.m.

Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick

The Sacrament of the Sick is a healing sacrament of the Church. Anyone who is sick or elderly and in need of physical or emotional healing can come to this sacrament which will be communally celebrated annually. Those who would like to receive the sacrament before a hospital stay or surgery are invited to call the Parish Office to make arrangements. The sacrament is also available to those who may be near death. Please call the parish emergency line. Someone will respond to your call. Please inform the Parish Office when a member of the parish is hospitalized.

Solemnity of all Saints: Let us pray. All loving God, as the election approaches, we seek to better understand the wide-ranging issues and concerns that confront our city/state/country, and how the Gospel compels us to respond. We seek kindness, compassion and a loving heart while dialoguing with our family, friends, neighbors and community members who are also discerning their vote in this election. We ask for eyes that are free from blindness so that we might see each other as brothers and sisters, one and equal in dignity. We ask for ears that will hear the cries of all life. We ask for minds and hearts that are open to hearing the voices of leaders who will bring us closer to Your Kingdom. We pray for courage and generosity of spirit that we may choose leaders who hear Your Word, live Your love, and keep in the ways of Your truth. We desire You, compassionate God, to guide us to Your Kingdom of justice and peace. This we ask in the name of Your Son Jesus Christ, and through the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.
