FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

God's salvation is offered to all – it's never too late

There is a charming little village in Ireland called Fore which, in Irish Folklore, has seven wonders associated with it: The Tree that will not burn, the Mill without a mill race, the Water which flows uphill, the Water which will not boil, the Monastery built on a bog, a stone lintel raised by St. Fechin's prayers, and the Anchorite in a Stone. You can go online and look up the meaning of each of these "wonders" by typing in "The seven wonders of Fore." However, local legend has added an eighth wonder, the wall that moved.

The story goes that the local saint, St. Fechin, promised that anyone who was buried in the graveyard surrounding his chapel would go to heaven. Sometime in the seventeenth century, a group of disrespectful men, in order to make fun of the pious, buried a very disreputable person within the walls of the cemetery. When they observed the burial the next morning, the wall of the cemetery had moved so that the grave that was originally dug within the wall was now outside the wall. No heaven for that chap. A very Irish tale!

Speaking through the Prophet Amos, God calls out what He sees as the injustice of the powerful over the weak, the unscrupulous traders who cheat the poor, and the injustices done against God's people. What God has given, He has given for the benefit of all. This is true of the goods of this world, but also, the goods, the gifts, the talents, and the treasures that we possess as part of our being. Is it not true that a father and mother are called to care for God's children who have been placed into their care? Is it not true that priests are to spend their time, talents, gifts, even the resources of this world to feed those in their care? Every gift, talent, resource we have has been given to us by God and God looks to us to use them for the benefit of His people.

Fortunately for us, the Gospel gives us an insight into God's generosity even when He has found us failing and making use of His gifts for our own benefit. The steward has been stealing what did not belong to him and was cheating his master. Now that he is found out, he has little time to put things right, or, at least make arrangements for his future comfort. Interestingly, his master commends him for at least returning some of what he has stolen.

Sometimes we fail to serve God as we should, or we fail to use the gifts, talents and the life God has given us for the benefit of God's Kingdom and the service of others. But failure does not have to define us, who we are, or how we lived our lives. It seems to me that God allows us the opportunity to make a change, no matter how late. God allows us to change, to turn our self-serving into service and giving. He would rather have us give something rather than squander everything. After all, the goods of this world stay in this world, but the treasure of heaven lasts for eternity. If you want treasure, choose the treasure that lasts. With God, it is never too late to make a difference, to choose life, to do the right thing. We may choose for ourselves to be outside the wall, but that is not a choice God makes for us. God desires to have all His children within the wall and He gives us every opportunity to choose that for ourselves.

Quarterly Bulletins – Everyone registered with SafeParish should receive a quarterly training video sometime in the next week. The training bulletin must be completed in 30 days to remain active and in compliance with the Archdiocese of Cincinnati Child Protection Policy. No one may work with children if they are not active and in compliance. If you did not get the bulletin, check your spam or junk mail. You can also sign into your account, go to the Training Tab and click on the “Due” link to see which bulletins are due and their due date.

If you have any questions about your SafeParish account, you can contact Deacon Mark Bardonaro at deaconmark@stdominicdelhi.org or 513-471-7741, ext. 415.

BIBLE STUDY WITH FR. JIM AND FR. CHRIS

Fr. Chris and Fr. Jim will begin their fall Bible Study on Tuesday, October 4 at 7:00 p.m. in O'Connor Hall. There will be seven sessions in which they will discuss Women in the New Testament. Bible Study runs until November 29 with no class on October 18 and November 1. Call 513-471-7741, ext. 0 to register by Monday, September 26. If you are unable to join us on Tuesday evenings, we will be recording the session each week. We will email the recording on Wednesday or Thursday to those on our Word on Fire email listing. If you are not signed up for the Word on Fire emails, you can sign up at www.stdominicparish2.flocknote.com.

PARENTAL PREPARATION FOR THEIR INFANT'S BAPTISM

Parents requesting Baptism of their first child are asked to attend a preparation session. During this time, we will look at the history and theology of the sacrament, reflect on our own Baptism, and look at ways to pass the Catholic faith on to our children. Godparents are encouraged to attend, as well. Our next session is scheduled for Sunday, October 2 after the 11:30 a.m. Mass in church. Contact the Parish Office at 513-471-7741, ext. 0 with questions about Baptism or to let us know that you will join us on October 2.

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS – RCIA RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION ADAPTED FOR CHILDREN

St. Dominic's RCIA process continues year-round. Because of this, adults and children can begin at any time. Most who come to the Catholic Church as adults do so because God has called them through other people. If YOU know someone who may be interested in the Catholic Faith, ask him or her to call us, or ask if he or she would like for you to call and make the first “contact.” While new inquirers may join St. Dominic's RCIA process at any time, because of our lingering “school year mindset,” many people begin to really consider inquiring about the faith as the new school year begins. Now is a great time to reach out and mention becoming Catholic to someone you know who may be considering it! Contact Karen Brandstetter at 513-471-7741, ext. 481 or kbrandstetter@stdominicdelhi.org for more information about St. Dominic's RCIA.

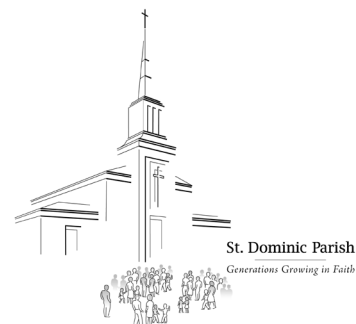

Join us in O'Connor Hall for our next Community Dinner on Wednesday, September 21, 2022, 5:00 p.m. until 6:30 p.m.

We hope to see everyone there!!!

PROJECT RACHEL MINISTRY – The Project Rachel Ministry has helped women and men receive healing and forgiveness for those who have lost a child through abortion. Knowing what we know now, there are relatives, friends, partners, and others involved in the experience who also suffer the loss of an unborn child. All involved in an abortion experience can honor the child and have an opportunity to heal while grieving and mourning their loss. The Office for Respect Life Ministries offers weekend retreats and support groups for the mothers, and a Day of Reflection for anyone affected by abortion. We invite you to: "Look into your heart, listen to the voice of God. Help yourself by accepting His love and forgiveness." For more information, visit our website at projectrachelohio.org or email hopeandhealing@gmail.com or call the Project Rachel confidential helpline at 513-784-0531.
