FR. BEN'S COLUMN

A VOICE IN THE WILDERNESS IS STILL A VOICE FOR GOD

It is never easy to stand up for something that is not popular. What was it like for the lovers of liberty to stand up against the religious intolerance, racism, hate and violence of the fascist regimes before and during the Second World War? And yet, we know, that people did stand up to them and many gave their lives because, even though they may have been afraid, they wanted to stand for something. What was it like for the democrats of Russia and Eastern Europe after the Second World War to stand up to the Communists, Marxists, and Soviets who promised a workers Utopia and delivered a totalitarian hell? And yet, in spite of their fear, many people raised their voices in a call for liberty, freedom, an end to oppression, and political enslavement. Millions were arrested, imprisoned, tortured, executed, and murdered and yet, they were willing to raise their voice. They would not be silent, they would not go quietly, they raised their voice even if it was a cry in the wilderness. What must it be like to be the voice in the wilderness?

John the Baptist is one of the great figures of Advent. The voice in the wilderness condemning the evil of his age and pointing to a new beginning. The new beginning is not a King, not an Emperor, not a general, not even a president or politician. This new beginning is a “lamb.” Lambs don’t usually grow up to be lions. In John’s day, lambs were sacrificed and this is true of the Lamb that John points us too: the Lamb of God. This Lamb will be sacrificed, but some things are worth the sacrifice. This Lamb is the Lion of Judah.

In spite of the crowd, the mob, the bullies of social media, the political elites, there always has been, and there are, many courageous voices raised for goodness, truth, freedom, compassion, life and faith. Brave people who would rather suffer than be silent, would rather give their lives than have them have no meaning or purpose. They are not willing to be content living in fear, in the shadows, living in silence and shame. We are called to be such voices for the Lord. We may be sacrificed like lambs, but at least we will have lived like lions. As we begin Advent, we should ask: What do I stand for? Am I willing to sacrifice for what I believe?

Thanks to the people of our Family of Parishes for all you do to make your voice heard and thanks to God, the source of all blessings and life. May He continue to shed His blessings on us and may the Holy Virgin Mary, Queen of All Saints, smile on us now and lead us to eternal life with the Lamb in heaven.

IN MEMORIAM

Please pray for the soul of William Bohan who died this past week. May he rest in the peace of the Lord.

BAPTISMS

Brandon Scott Joseph Berthiaume, son of Brandon and Sandrine Berthiaume.
Grace Olivia Crusoe, daughter of Ricardo and Marissa Crusoe.
Valentina Rose Torres, daughter of Sergio Torres and Anne Awad.

SUBSTITUTE TEACHERS NEEDED – ARE YOU LOOKING TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE? Consider a paid substitute teaching position at St. Dominic School. A substitute teacher provides meaningful service that helps young people, assists educators in their ministry, and is a great way to give back to the St. Dominic community. Teaching is a ministry. A substitute teacher is a valuable asset to every school. You must have patience, tenacity and absolutely love to work with children. You give of yourself selflessly without seeking praise. You will be making a difference in ways you may not fathom. If you hold a high school diploma or higher and are retired and have extra time to serve, consider substitute teaching at St. Dominic School. We pay you $15.00 an hour, and you get to help shape the future. Contact Jennifer O'Brien, Principal, for more information at 513-251-1276.
