FR. BEN'S COLUMN

Sr. Francis is an Irish nun I had the good fortune to know many years ago back in Dublin. She was the director of a small “nursery school” but a school with a difference. Many of the children there had been referred for care by the children’s courts, children’s welfare officers, or the Gardai (Irish Police). To describe Sr. Francis as bossy, pushy, tyrannical, and a force to be reckoned with, would be an understatement. Sr. Francis was a true dragon of a nun, but I have never come across a more devoted or true advocate for children and their parents. With the put-upon, the beaten, the outcast, the hurt child, the marginalized, the broken soul, she was as gentle as a lamb. With the bully, the abuser, the violent, when it came to protecting children and mothers, Sr. Francis was a lion. This nun was one of the best shepherds I have ever had the privilege to know.

There are lots of different sorts of shepherds. Jesus chose this image to describe Himself and those He placed in leadership over the Church, the pope, bishops and priests. Men who were willing to die, if necessary, to care for God’s sheep. Yet, as you are now tired of hearing me say, the most important shepherds in our children’s lives are not the pope, the bishops, or the priests. In fact, the most important shepherds in our lives and the lives of children were and are parents. Protecting, feeding, guiding, and even searching for the lost is all part of the life of the shepherd, and the parent.

Obviously, Sr. Francis didn’t have any children of her own. That didn’t matter to her, she was a shepherd of other people’s children. She lived as if all children were her own, and she was a shepherd to everyone. This should be the same for us as Jesus calls us all to be good shepherds. The good shepherd takes care of all the sheep, not just his/her own. Being a shepherd is a way of life, not a job. We are called to be shepherds, in fact, God sends us into the world to be shepherds. A shepherd must be as fiery as a dragon, as strong as a lion, and as gentle as a lamb. Not just for his own sheep, but for the sake of all the sheep. What a great way to live a life.

The good shepherd is not concerned about himself first. The good shepherd is concerned first for the welfare of the sheep. And this is the point – when God sent us into the world, He sent us on a mission, first, to love God and second, to love others. We are not to be the center of our lives or our concerns. If the Scriptures teach us anything, it is that only the one who lives generously will find fulfillment in life. A life centered on “me” is too small a way to live. A life focused on God and others – now that’s a big life and a life worth living. As Jesus said, “give and you will receive.”

Jesus, in a moment of sadness and empathy, said to His apostles: “I look around and I see the people and they are like sheep without a shepherd.” He invites us to be their shepherds, good shepherds, for His sheep, our children, our people.

ST. DOMINIC SCHOOL

My Dear Friends,

Founded in September 1934, St. Dominic School will celebrate its 90th birthday this year. It is a tremendous credit to the generations of families at St. Dominic that an outstanding education has been provided for so many generations of children. It is no easy task to begin and then sustain a Catholic school. It takes vision, commitment, determination, sheer will power, and hard work, not to mention the time, treasure, and talent poured in by so many faithful Catholics for generations. This was the commitment shown by your great-grandparents, grandparents, and parents. Today's St. Dominic families exhibit the same desire to maintain our Catholic school and we are committed to this dream. The first ninety years is only the beginning, the next ninety will be just as glorious.

As the summer goes on, you will hear more about how we plan to celebrate our 90th year but we thought you would like an update on what has been happening around the school as far as renewal of the campus is concerned. Last summer, we asked a group of parishioners to walk through the school building with Jenny O'Brien, our principal, and Charlie de Zarn, our business manager. We asked this group to look at the school building and report on what they thought would help make the school an even better environment for our families. They were to pay attention to these areas: what needs to be done immediately, what can be done over the next year, what would some long-range projects involve. Last summer, the group came back with an excellent outline of projects that they thought would enhance our school building and so the lives of our students. We have been working through this list of projects in the last year and will continue to do so this summer. Here are some of the projects that have already taken place in 2023-2024:

Painting of all school corridors; Repainting of Statue of St. Dominic and refurbishing of old closet to niche inside front entrance; Repainting of school cafeteria; Seventy-Five new security cameras throughout school, church, and exterior of buildings; Increased security lighting around exterior of school building; New exit door in gym; New signage on exterior of gym; Exterior of gym painted; New carpet in school reception area; New drainage and drains Pedretti side of school building; Introduction of the Theology of the Body Curriculum; Installation of new phone, PA, and security alert system; and Replacing of tiles to the library entrance.

New School Projects – Summer 2024 and beyond:

Canopies for playground on Pedretti side of school (in progress); Canopies for school front entrance; Creating a new dining area for preschool (in progress); Painting of ceilings in school corridors (in progress); Architect drawings for development of new STEAM Academy (Science, Technology, Engineering, Art and Mathematics) in old convent section; Development of teachers' lounge on first floor (in progress); Development of drawings for entrance area to school, reception and administrative offices; Look into sound proofing of the cafeteria; Possible replacement of interior classroom doors and exterior doors to new security doors; Rubberized mulch in playground area to replace regular mulch; Redevelopment of gym entrance area; Refurbishing of toilets in cafeteria area; Possible new ramp to kindergarten/preschool entrance; and Development of Student Remote Learning Room (in progress).

Some of these projects have been funded by State grants, parish/school structural funds, as well as gifts and bequests from parishioners. It is our intention to continue to redevelop St. Dominic school infrastructure and campus and also to build an outstanding Catholic education program for our children today and tomorrow. Thank you for making that happen and for all your support of St. Dominic School and Parish. With God, all things are possible and through you, He makes great things happen.

Fr. Ben, Fr. Jim, Fr. Chris, Jenny O'Brien

CENSUS UPDATE FROM FR. JIM

It's time to update our parish census! We need to know who our members are, and their current contact information. We have records on file, but the information is dated. You will be receiving a letter in the mail this week from Fr. Ben and me asking for your help with this. This letter will provide instructions on how to do this. We hope that most of you will be able to do this quickly online, but there will be other options provided. All of this is to help us serve you better. Thank you in advance for your cooperation.
