FR. BEN'S COLUMN

You only live once, so you might as well be brave.

When you read this column, I will be home in Ireland with my family. While there, I will visit the shrine of St. Oliver Plunkett (born November 1, 1621) who, like all pastors, is a martyr! He was an outstanding priest and bishop who spent his life one step ahead of the hangman simply because he was a Catholic priest and bishop. Eventually caught and charged with treason, he was taken to London because no Irish jury would find him guilty. There, he was held in Newgate Prison, tried at Westminster Hall, and executed at Tyburn, London (July 1, 1681).

The children of noble Irish Catholic families were typically taken from their parents and given to English families to be raised in the reformed religion. So, young Oliver was sent out of Ireland as a child by his parents to be educated on the Continent of Europe, where he eventually was ordained a priest (1654), was a professor at the Propaganda Fide University, and became Rector of the Irish College in Rome, before being sent back to Ireland by Pope Clement IX as Archbishop of Armagh (1681). He was, therefore, the successor of St. Patrick. The country, church, clergy, and people were in a terrible state, so he set out to bring hope and comfort to a desperate, despised, and downtrodden people. He celebrated the sacraments in secret, and when possible, publicly. In an attempt to bring about reform and good order, he held synods with the few clergy and bishops who remained in Ireland. He ordained new priests and bishops, baptized and confirmed adults and children; he even established schools, where and when possible, teaching both Catholic and Protestant children (although it was illegal to educate Catholic children). He negotiated with the civil authorities, when possible, in times when the penal laws were relaxed. By all accounts, he was a kind, generous, and faithful man who dearly wanted peace for his people. He had a reputation for kindness and generosity toward everyone and he was learned, gentle, full of energy and love for the faith.

With a return of anti-Catholic hostilities in Britain, unless they conformed to the state religion or left the country within a short period of parole, all Catholic clergy in Ireland became hunted men. St. Oliver refused to leave, and for a prolonged period of time, "went on the run." Taking different disguises, he traveled throughout the country baptizing, confirming, ordaining, celebrating Mass, and encouraging his priests and people to be faithful. His constant refrain was: "We will not abandon the sheep." Imagine, he suffered all things rather than leave his people. The good shepherd searches for the lost, lifts up, carries and binds the wounded, and refuses to leave the sheep to the wolves. Of course, we see this every day in priests and bishops, possibly! But certainly, in mothers and fathers. The truth is that we are all called to be shepherds like this, like Jesus, like Oliver Plunkett. We are called to care for all the sheep, others as well as our own.

No doubt St. Oliver was a heroic figure who lived a life worth living. We can do the same. Be heroic, be a shepherd, be a good shepherd.

I will place the names and the intentions of our parishes and our people at the shrine of St. Oliver, at St. Peter's Church in Drogheda. I will pray for you and would appreciate your prayer for me.

Fr. Ben

PARISHIONERS FOR LIFE

St. Dominic's Parishioners for Life ministry is sponsoring our nine-month Spiritual Adoption program (originated by Archbishop Fulton Sheen in the early 1970s) where anyone, any family "spiritually adopts" a baby. You'll spiritually adopt a baby by blessing them with a name and praying for their life for nine months. The spiritual adoption will begin on September 17 and 18 in the Gathering Place. All baby names will be posted in the Gathering Place. In January, we'll host a baby shower benefitting Pregnancy Center West and conclude with a balloon release for each baby on Mother's Day in May. Questions/comments, call Marty Berning at 513-680-0046 or Theresa Morris at 513-702-0346.

THANK YOU

Thank you to the fifteen volunteers who will be monitoring students who arrive early to school in the morning. This will be a blessing to those parents who need to get to work early.

CATECHISTS NEEDED FOR PSR

We are in need of three catechists for our PSR (Parish School of Religion) Program for this coming school year. We need a teacher for our 6th, 7th & 8th grade students. These students are waiting to learn and grow in their faith with the support of catechists who are willing to share their own faith and help to impart knowledge and dedication to our Catholic faith each week with these children.

Our PSR classes are on Sunday mornings immediately following the 9:30 a.m. Mass. We begin in September and continue through mid-May. You will have a curriculum to work with and the supplies that you need for each lesson. Come and be a part of our team of catechists who are working to help expand and form the faith of our children. Please contact Karen Brandstetter at 513-471-4471, ext. 481 or via email at Kbrandstetter@stdominicdelhi.org with any questions or just to talk about the possibilities!
