FR. BEN'S COLUMNBAPTISM OF THE LORD

A few years ago, I read an article in which Cardinal Ratzinger (Pope Benedict XVI) was reflecting on the modern phenomenon of parents waiting later to baptize their children or allowing their children to choose for themselves. The Cardinal made the point that we see life, natural life, as a gift and so we bring children into the world. We see this as a gift to the child that is bestowed on them without their involvement in the decision. Baptism, he commented, is the birth into eternal life, which is an even greater gift to a child than natural life. The Cardinal said that it would be truly gracious if we were to bestow both gifts to our children.

In fact, natural life and supernatural life, the life of God that we call “grace,” are both gifts from God. Every child has their beginning in the heart of God. As God proclaimed to the prophet Jeremiah: “Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you.” (Jeremiah 1:5) In fact, before God created anything, the stars, planets, earth, trees, animals, plants, birds of the air and fish of the sea, God already knew that He was going to create you. Before anything came to be, God already loved you. Every child is a gift from God and God desires that every child share in the gifts of His creation, His life, natural and supernatural. God’s life, God’s gifts, in every respect, are worth having.

While the womb of a mother is an entrance into natural life, the baptismal font is an entrance into the spiritual life of grace, God’s life, or what we call eternal life. Just as God offers us two gifts of life, natural and eternal, all parents have the potential to give their children these same gifts of natural and eternal life through baptism.

Interestingly, the second part of God’s proclamation to the prophet Jeremiah is true for him and it is also true for us also: “Before you were born, I set you apart; I appointed you as a prophet to the nations.” (Jeremiah 1:5) God has a purpose for our lives, we have a mission to accomplish, and that mission is not small. Pope Benedict XVI expressed it this way: “The world offers you comfort. But you were not made for comfort. You were made for greatness.” The greatness the Pope speaks of is achieved by being the person God created us to be and carrying out the mission God has given us to do. And this mission, generally, is to build the Kingdom of God in the world, and specifically, to build that Kingdom in our hearts, homes, and community. To do this is to be truly “great” and to build the Kingdom of God is to build a truly “great” place to be and life to live.

Pope Francis also encourages the baptism of infants (and adults). “Why baptize a child who does not understand? When we baptize a child, the Holy Spirit enters that child, and the Holy Spirit makes...the Christian virtues grow in that child, who will then flourish. We must always give this opportunity to everyone, to all children, to have inside of them the Holy Spirit that will guide them throughout their lives. Do not forget to baptize children!”

Baptism opens us up to a new imagination, and a new vibrant understanding of life, not simply bound to this world and this physical reality. The Holy Spirit gives us a life that is unimaginable, creative, immense, beyond the obvious. It is the life of imagination, art, music, the life of belief where anything is possible.

FR. BEN'S COLUMN (cont'd.)

Baptism is the beginning of life and the beginning of a mission. Let's not settle for the ordinary when we have the potential to achieve the great. Let's not give our children only the created realities when the spiritual realities are so much more. The Holy Spirit gives us a life that is unimaginable, creative, immense, beyond the obvious. It is the life of imagination, art, music, the life of belief where anything is possible.

A GREAT WAY TO SUPPORT ST. DOMINIC PARISH

Are you required by the IRS to take annual distributions from your IRA account, also known as Required Minimum Distribution (RMD)? If so, you may consider making a Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD) directly to St. Dominic Parish from your IRA.
