FR. BEN'S COLUMN

Don't be afraid to accept Christ!

The high school I attended in Dublin was founded by the Missionary Congregation of the Oblates of Mary Immaculate. The school and its college prepared young Irish boys for the priesthood; young men who would travel around the world answering the Lord's command: "Go into the whole world and proclaim the Gospel." When I went there in the 1970's, the school was a regular high school, but the memories of those young Irish missionaries from 100 years before, was still strong in that place.

Every day I passed by a large world map that hung in the main hallway. It had lines radiating from Dublin to numerous points around the world. The map was framed by photos and pictures of young priests in different parts of the world: Japan, China, Vietnam, Chile, Argentina, the Amazon, Lake Victoria, South Africa, Uganda, Congo, Canada, North America, and many other exotic and exciting places. It was incredible to imagine that these Irish-speaking young boys would first have to master English, then study Latin and Greek, as well as French, before eventually tackling the indigenous language of the area of the world where they would be sent.

Many of these young men had never been away from their village in Ireland; never mind away from their family and friends. While preparing for the priesthood, they probably would return home once a year. And, just before leaving on their missionary journey, they could spend a week or so at home with their family. These men were fully aware that this visit was probably the last time they would see or hear from their mother and father, brothers and sisters, and family and friends. Even if they survived the dangers and diseases of their mission station, surely, they would never again receive word from home, they would never receive a letter, or telegram, and phones didn't exist. They would never hear of the death of their parents, the birth of nieces and nephews, nor the goings on of family and friends. For them, being a missionary was truly a life commitment.

In answer to the call of God, they were willing to leave father and mother, home and country, even their own native language and culture, for the sake of the Gospel, without any expectation of return. Their vocation was heroic. Never would they see another Christmas in Ireland surrounded by their loved ones. Instead, they would spend Christmas in a foreign land, speak a foreign language and partake in another culture, with a new family – their family. And that was the point of the map and the pictures. It was a reminder that priests were real heroes – in a time before imaginary heroes of the Marvel comic variety – priests were true brave men.

Although the mission is different, the spirit is the same; every day at our seminary, we see in the young men there that same heroic spirit, vitality, and tenacity. Faithful, visionary, dedicated, and zealous; they are willing to stand with Christ, and for Christ, in a world that brings its own challenges, dangers and demands; which are as much of a sacrifice as ever. Our seminarians are dedicated to carry on the mission of bringing the Christ Child to their new families.

BULLETIN COVER:

St. Dominic teachers at Meet the Teacher Night.

FR. BEN'S COLUMN CONTD.

The young men who left Ireland were heroes, mighty men, men of courage, conviction, strong and zealous for the Gospel and for Jesus. They loved their families, but they loved God even more; they sacrificed everything to answer God's call, because to stay, to fail to hear and listen to God's call, would be an even greater sacrifice. Being a priest today requires the same great spirit from a man. If you have that spirit, maybe the priesthood is for you.

I have been a priest for over thirty years and don't regret a day. And I can affirm the words of Jesus, our Good Shepherd: I have received more than I have given, an abundance, a treasure, "pressed down and flowing over." Pope Benedict XVI in a homily to young people in 2005 said: "Dear young people: Do not be afraid of Christ! He takes nothing away, and He gives you everything. When we give ourselves to Him, we receive a hundredfold in return. Yes, open, open wide the doors to Christ – and you will find true life. Amen."

I love being a priest and I'm very happy to give my life to God in this way. I don't see this as heroic; I see it as natural, a calling, a gift to me from God. On the other hand, I see the heroic around me all the time. I see heroes in the parents and families I am privileged to serve as one of your priests.

It is truly heroic to say to a spouse, "I will love you and live for you every day of my life." It is truly heroic to conceive, bear, give birth and raise children. It is sacrificial to pour your life out so that your children may have a "good" life. Every day, parents rise and think first of their children, they work so they can be cared for, fed, clothed, educated, nursed, provided for. They give their time, their talents, their wealth, the sweat of their brow, the love of their hearts, the days of their lives, for their children. That is love. That is sacrifice, that is heroic, that is a life worth living. And God sees that gift and God will honor that gift. To live such a life is to embrace Jesus, and in embracing Him and His way of life, life is worth living.

Teaching our children to live this way, by word and example, whether as a priest, or a parent, or a teacher, or a brother and sister, is to give them a treasure worth having and prepare them for a life worth living.

We are about to start a new junior high ministry in our Family of Parishes. It is my hope that we can help form disciples of Christ who will not be afraid to embrace the Lord's way, the Lord's life, the Lord's call. It's about making heroes; it's about making saints.

Don't be afraid to embrace Christ. He takes nothing away, and He gives you everything.

IN MEMORIAM

Please pray for the souls of Frank Boerger and Keith Scherer who died this past week. May they rest in the peace of the Lord.

2024 ANNUAL MISSION COOPERATION IS COMING

Next weekend, August 31 & September 1, Fr. Lawrence E. Tucker from the Society of Our Lady of the Most Holy Trinity (SOLT) will give a mission appeal at our parish. Serving in twelve countries including the United States, SOLT Missionaries bring hope and the love of Jesus and Mary to people living in impoverished conditions. They serve migrant farm workers, refugees, Native Americans, orphans, the elderly, families and those undergoing drug rehabilitation.

SOLT missionaries serve in parishes and schools giving the sacraments and teaching catechism in remote areas. They also care for the needs of the poor through community and family development projects such as clean water, food and medical care. Your generosity makes it possible for these missionaries to bring Christ to the poor.

MASS INTENTIONS

Offering a Mass for a special intention is a long-standing tradition in the Catholic Church. Masses are offered for many reasons: In remembrance of someone deceased; A living person who is sick or suffering; A living person who is celebrating a birthday, anniversary, or another special moment in their life; In thanksgiving to God (including the Lord Jesus or the Holy Spirit); or a special prayer intention. We have several daily Masses over the next few weeks for which we do not have a Mass intention scheduled. If you would like to schedule a Mass Intention, stop in the Parish Office, or call 513-471-7741, ext. 0.

LABOR DAY HOLIDAY

We will not have a 6:10 a.m. Communion Service on Labor Day and Mass will be celebrated at 9:00 a.m. The Parish Office will be closed for the holiday.

EARLY BULLETIN DEADLINE

Due to the Labor Day holiday, we have an early deadline for the September 8 bulletin. Please submit information by Wednesday, August 28.

CHILDREN'S LITURGY OF THE WORD – CLOW
Have you ever been at 9:30 a.m. Mass on Sunday, when Father calls children up to go forth with an adult leader to hear the Word of God, and wonder what is going on? Well, this is Children's Liturgy of the Word (CLOW).

Children's Liturgy of the Word is a worship experience geared especially for children. The Word of God has a message that is as relevant and fitting for children as it is for adults. Liturgy of the Word with Children offers an experience for the children to hear Scripture in words they understand and to share their own understanding of God's Word.

What Happens? The celebration of the Liturgy of the Word with Children follows the same structure as the Liturgy of the Word for the entire assembly. The children celebrate the Introductory Rites with their families in the large assembly. After the opening prayer, the presider invites any children wishing to participate to join the leader, a trained catechist. The children and CLOW leaders proceed to the Gathering Place where they will hear and discuss the readings from the Children's Lectionary. The children return after the Prayer of the Faithful to celebrate the Liturgy of the Eucharist with their families and the entire community.

CLOW is held during Sunday 9:30 a.m. Mass at St. Dominic and is for children Pre-K through Third Grade. After a summer pause, we will resume CLOW the first Sunday in October.

We welcome all the children to join us. Celebrating the Liturgy of the Word in this way is an empowering experience and we are so happy that we can offer this to our families.

If you are interested in becoming a CLOW leader and/or helper (must have completed The Archdiocese of Cincinnati SafeParish), please contact Linda Schill at lindaatstdominic@gmail.com.

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS – RCIA
RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION
ADAPTED FOR CHILDREN

Our RCIA process continues year-round. Because of this, adults and children can begin at any time. Most who come to the Catholic Church as adults do so because God has called them through other people. If you know someone who may be interested in the Catholic Faith, ask him or her to call us, or ask if he or she would like for you to call and make the first "contact."

While new inquirers can join the RCIA process at any time, because of our lingering "school year mindset," many people begin to really consider inquiring about the faith as the new school year begins. Now is a great time to reach out and mention becoming Catholic to someone you know who may be considering it!

Contact Deacon Mark Bardonaro at 513-471-7741, ext. 415 or deaconmark@stdominicdelhi.org for more information about our Mary Queen of All Saints RCIA process.

SAFE PARISH
With school back in session, we would like to remind all parish/school employees and volunteers of the requirements of the Decree on Child Protection. All employees and volunteers are required to have completed The Archdiocese of Cincinnati SafeParish: Protecting Children From Sexual Abuse – Archdiocese of Cincinnati Edition. New volunteers can register for SafeParish at www.aocsafeenvironment.org/.

Now that the school year has begun, volunteers need to be up-to-date on the quarterly bulletins or you will not be able to work/volunteer with youth until your SafeParish account is approved. If you did not get the bulletin, check your spam, or junk mail. You can also sign into your account at www.aocsafeenvironment.org. Go to the Training Tab and click on the "Due" link to see which bulletins are due and their due date. Please direct questions regarding bulletin completion to Deacon Mark Bardonaro, Safe Environment Coordinator at 513-471-7741, ext. 415 or deaconmark@stdominicdelhi.org.
