FR. BEN'S COLUMN

What do servants look like?

One morning just before Mass, I had an opportunity to chat with the first grade kids. The conversation started with one little boy telling me he lost a tooth. I asked him if the Easter Bunny gave him anything for his tooth and he told me that it wasn't the Easter Bunny but the Tooth Fairy who comes and collects teeth. As it turned out he got $20.00 for his tooth. I wish I had that Tooth Fairy when I was a child. This led into a conversation about losing teeth and it was interesting how some of the children mistook the Tooth Fairy for Tinkerbell. I don't know for certain, but I'm pretty sure that they are two different fairies. Once Tinkerbell was mentioned that led into a conversation about "The Wonderful World of Disney." One child told me that she had been to Disney World, Disneyland, and a Disney Cruise. I have actually been to both Disneyland and Disney World. I was in Disneyland when I went to visit friends in California because that's one of the things you do as a tourist when you are in LA LA land. I was in Disney World in Florida about twenty-five years ago when my parents, brothers, sisters, their children, and a cousin and her children all stayed for ten days on Coco Beach and traveled to Orlando in three family vans.

I have to tell you that I have no plans to ever go back to anything with the name Disney in it. It was torturous, I thought I would never get out and when I did, I thought my spirit would be crushed for life. Have you ever been anywhere more syrupy-sweet, and candy floss in your life? And here is my point (at last), every child there was excited, joyful, happy, and in their own world. Of course, they were accompanied by parents, many of whom were at their wits end trying to corral them. I'm thinking of that and how being willing to take your children to the Magic Kingdom must be a true expression of how much these parents love their children. Not just that they have to fork out a fortune to a Mouse for the privilege of going to his pad, but you have to pay extra to shake hands with the rodent. Then they have to endure hours of complete agony visiting every ride and exhibit, and they do so, because they want to give their children something special, they want to see them smile, they want them to enjoy life, they want them to be happy. Parents are willing to make sacrifices for the well-being and happiness of their children.

Sacrifice is not uncommon to parents; in fact, sacrifice is a way of life for most moms and dads. Once a child comes into their lives, their lives change forever. Now there is a different reason to live, a different reason to get up in the morning, a different reason to spend the day at work, a different way to spend our earnings, our time, our energy and our life. And in spite of the sacrifices they have to make, they don't see this life as a sacrifice, they see it as a blessing, a joy, a gift, an enrichment. Parents give, and give, and give more again, and it is never a burden, and it never ends, it is always willingly given and without expectation of return. Only the love of a parent would endure the pain and martyrdom of Disney for their child.

If you want to see the sort of leadership Jesus is speaking about in the Gospel today, I think good parents are a good model of what He wants us to be and to do. Jesus said, "I came to serve, not to be served." I think every good mom and dad knows what that means and knows what that looks like. They serve, they are not served, and they do so with love and because of love. A mother's, or a father's, love for their child is a good example of what Jesus means by service.

IN MEMORIAM

Please pray for the soul of Shirley Paoello who died this past week. May she rest in the peace of the Lord.

EARLY BULLETIN DEADLINE

Due to the All Saints Day, we have an early deadline for Sunday, November 3 bulletin. Please submit bulletin information by noon on Wednesday, October 23. Thank you.

CHILDREN'S LITURGY OF THE WORD – CLOW

Children's Liturgy of the Word (CLOW) takes place on Sunday during the 9:30 a.m. Mass. Children's Liturgy of the Word is a worship experience geared especially for children. The Word of God has a message that is as relevant and fitting for children as it is for adults. Liturgy of the Word with Children offers an experience for the children to hear Scripture in words they understand and to share their own understanding of God's Word. We welcome all children Pre-K through Third Grade to join us.

Rights & Responsibilities

During this sixth week, we focus on Rights and Responsibilities. Human beings, created in the image and likeness of God, have basic rights which protect our dignity and ensure all can live a full human life. Because these rights are universal, we have the responsibility to help maintain and protect these rights, not just for ourselves, but for all. Under this principle are issues such as access to quality education, healthy food, healthcare, safe and affordable housing, and nonviolent neighborhoods. Find out more at www.iVoteCatholic.org.

MEMORIAL MASS

On Monday evening, November 4 at 7:00 p.m., all members of our parish who have died this past year will be remembered in a special way at our Memorial Mass. We encourage all families, friends, and fellow parishioners to join us in song and prayer. If you will be attending the Mass to remember a loved one who was not from this parish, please call the Parish Office at 513-471-7741, ext. 0 by October 24 to have them included.

Today is World Mission Sunday. We join Catholics around the globe in supporting the mission of the Church in places where the faith is young, growing, or facing particular challenges. Your generous contributions today will make a significant impact on the lives of many and help spread the Gospel message to all corners of the world. Consider how you can get involved and donate generously this week. Thank you.
