BULLETIN COVER:

St. Dominic Pet Blessing.

FR. BEN'S COLUMN*EVERYONE IS A GIFT

Soon it will be Christmas, and we will be surrounded by all the wonderful comforts of that special time of the year. For most of us, family will be home, kids returning from college, cards from all over the world, fairy lights, Christmas trees, snow men and spying the elf on the shelf, and the family fight at Christmas dinner. People will greet each other and share a smile, presents will be placed under the tree, and food will be abundant.

I will hear one of my favorite songs, the Little Drummer Boy, which liturgists tell us should not/or cannot be played in church. I pay as much attention to liturgists as I do to bishops, so we love that song here in our family of parishes. It's not certain who wrote the song, but it is believed to have been written by Katherine K. Davis in 1941, although others say either Henry Onorati or Harry Simeone are the authors. It is based on an old Czech carol.

The point is, the little drummer boy was a child that went to visit the Virgin Mary and her newborn Son at the manger. As others gave their gifts, he sadly said to Mary, "I am a poor boy, too, I have no gift to give that is fit for a king." Then the little boy asked if he should play for the baby and Mary nodded. The little boy played, and the little child Jesus smiled at him. Oh! What a gift that was to the little drummer boy. Imagine, Jesus smiling at you!

A few weeks ago, at Mass I told the story about a baby of a friend of mine who was born in Ireland without thumbs. Many people said how would he manage without thumbs? From the first day she took him home, the child's mother exercised his fingers. When he was able to grasp and hold things, she put pencils, pens, crayons, paintbrushes, knives, forks, spoons, in his hands until he managed to use them. That child loved art and now has a career as a graphic artist. He, and his mother, didn't let his apparent limitations hold him back. Our gifts are limited only by our own lack of adventure.

In our archdiocese, we are celebrating what is being called "Together Sunday." It is an invitation to belong, it is an invitation to join the community, and it is an invitation to share what we have with each other. All of us are a gift and all of us have gifts. Pablo Picasso said: "The meaning of life is to find your gift. The purpose of life is to give it away." This is an invitation to share your gift of yourself with this community by belonging. It is also an invitation to share your gifts with this community so we can enjoy and celebrate all the gifts God wants us to have. It is also an invitation to see each other as a gift, a gift from God. You and your gifts enrich this community and bring a smile to the face of the Lord. Don't be limited by your own doubts, jump in and make some noise.

If you think you would like to be involved in any of the ministries, activities, groups, and missions of our parish communities, please fill out the form (there are extras at the doors of church) and return it to the office or in the collection basket and we will be in contact with you soon. Thank you to all who have made our parishes such vibrant and joyful communities of faith.

Fr. Ben

EARLY BULLETIN DEADLINE

Due to the Thanksgiving Holiday, articles for the December 1 bulletin need to be submitted by noon on Wednesday, November 20.

BAPTISMS

Emma Rose Olinger, daughter of Kyle and Jennifer Olinger.
Levi William Bethel, son of Brent Bethel and Ava Uchtman.

FROM FR. JIM

Last weekend, there was a memorial tribute to Pete Rose at Great American Ball Park. His death has been an invitation to reflect on my memories of competing against him growing up. My earliest memory of him was a Pee Wee football game at Bold Face Park, watching our St. William defensive backs chasing Pete from behind as he ran for a touchdown. I have many memories of playing against him in Knothole baseball. One play stands out for me in B Knothole. I was playing shortstop and Pete tried to steal second. We had him dead to right, and he tried unsuccessfully to run me over. I recalled that play when he won the All-Star game by running over catcher Ray Fosse. Pete was a very smart player, always looking for an edge. He carried this over into his professional career with the Big Red Machine. I would have loved to have been in on those conversations between Rose, Morgan, and Bench talking about various baseball situations in the dugout. I remember the Elder – West High game on Thanksgiving, my Senior year. West High won that game. The star running back was Pete Rose!

Pete was a catcher all the way through Knothole baseball, but when he got to high school, he switched to second base because he didn't have a strong enough arm to make it to the big leagues as a catcher. My favorite memory was as a member of Elder's baseball team, beating Pete and Eddie Brinkman and West High, 3 -1 for the city championship in 1959. We played the game at Cheviot field house park. Pete hit a ball off Scotty Seger that hit the light pole in left center. We went on to win the state championship. Pete went on to break Ty Cobb's hit record. One thing you can say about Pete Rose, he was "single minded" in his determination to play major league baseball! Rest in peace, Pete!

TORCH DEADLINE CHANGE

The deadline for submitting articles for the Torch has changed. All articles must be submitted by the 5th of the month prior to publication. Articles can be mailed to the parish office, placed in the collection basket or emailed to parishoffice@stdominicdelhi.org.

FROM THE SOCIAL ACTION OFFICE OF THE ARCHDIOCESE

The Catholic Social Action Office has named St. Dominic a 2024 CHAMPION of the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. The parish was presented with an award to commemorate this designation.

Why St. Dominic? The Catholic Social Action Office looked back over the last several years of giving and chose parishes who have both given generously and – more importantly – consistently. They recognize that not all parishes are the same size and have the same capacity for giving so higher weight was given to those parishes who have, year after year, faithfully supported the CCHD collection.

DAILY MASS SCHEDULE CHANGE

Beginning January 1, 2025, the Daily Mass Schedule will be as follows:

Holy Mass

7:30 a.m. Monday - Thursday

8:15 a.m. Friday - Saturday

Communion Service

6:10 a.m. Monday - Friday

Thanks for your support and prayers.

GIVING TREES

November: A Time for Giving Thanks

A great way of giving our thanks at St. Dominic is by participating in our annual Giving Tree program. Next weekend, November 23 and 24, three trees decorated with gift tags will be at the church doors. Each tag designates a person who, without help from us, would have a meager Christmas. The ages on the tags range from infants to adults. The gifts need to be returned on the weekend of December 14 and 15 so that they can be sorted and delivered after 11:30 a.m. Mass.
