BULLETIN COVER

St. Dominic PTO's Trunk or Treat.

FR. BEN'S COLUMNTOGETHER FOR ALL OUR SAKES

The human brain can be divided into two main types of cells, neurons and glia. The adult human brain is thought to consist of around 86 billion neurons and around the same number of glial cells. Neurons are responsible for receiving sensory information from the external environment and relaying motor commands from the brain to the muscles. Glial cells have a variety of roles in supporting and protecting the functions of the neurons. There are another 3000-plus types of brain cells operating at the same time. There are 36 trillion cells in the human body and 2-3 billion cells in the heart. Individually, cells are so small we can really only view them under a microscope. While some cells can last the span of a human lifetime, many are replaced every seven years.

Only in connecting and working together can cells achieve their real purpose. A human cell on its own cannot fulfill its purpose; it cannot develop its potential, and it cannot survive. But together, these cells are strong; they live, they reproduce, and they give life. Coming together and forming one body, each cell helps achieve something, each cell gives something, each cell does something, each cell has a purpose. Each cell is important and has a task. Although each type of cell is identical, they still produce individuals, and no two individuals are the same.

Together is bigger than we think

Very often, when we think of a parish community, a diocese, or even the Church, we can rightly think of all those whom we see, hear, work with; whom we share our lives with. Together, we are a community, a parish, a family, the Church. We know that the Church is bigger than us here on the westside of Cincinnati, or even the Archdiocese of Cincinnati, or the Church in the United States. The Church is all the people who belong, every nationality, culture, language, color, ethnicity, all people. There are more than one billion Catholics in the world and all together, we are the Church. All belong, all are called, all have a mission, all make a difference, all are important, all are sent, all are a gift from God, and all are brothers and sisters – together, we are the Body of Christ, we are the Church. Together, we are one body.

Pope John XXIII

As Catholics and Christians, our sense of togetherness is even greater than this world and this time. When he called the Second Vatican Council, Pope John XXIII asked that we remember that the Church is not just made up of those who are living on earth now, but all those who have ever belonged to the Church, all those who will belong, all those who are already in heaven, and all those who are on the way through purification in Purgatory. For us, being “together” is all of us; we are all together, we form one body and we all help each other on the same journey. The Blessed Virgin, the Saints, are as much a part of the Church as we are and they are just as present, just as concerned, just as active. They are involved in our mission. They hear our prayers, and our prayers and sacrifices help others, the living and the dead.

When he was a child, the future Pope John was taken by his parents to a procession of the relics of a saint through the town. Unable to see, his father put him on his shoulders, and he was able to observe everything. Reflecting on this gesture later in life, he said: “The secret in life is to let yourself be carried by others to God. My whole life has been about letting other people carry me to God.”

We are in this together
All of us, God, Jesus, the Holy Spirit, Mary and the saints in heaven, the poor souls, the pope, bishops, clergy, religious, all our people, we are all in this together. I remember my father and mother carrying my brother David and me on the streets of Dublin. God, that felt good to be held in someone's arms and carried along. Every cell in the body has a purpose and every cell exists for the others. That's how the body works. Let's carry each other – together – that would be a wonderful way to live.

MASS INTENTIONS

Offering a Mass for a special intention is a long-standing tradition in the Catholic Church. Masses are offered for many reasons: In remembrance of someone deceased; A living person who is sick or suffering; A living person who is celebrating a birthday, anniversary, or another special moment in their life; In thanksgiving to God (including the Lord Jesus or the Holy Spirit); Or a special prayer intention. We have several daily Masses in December that we do not have a Mass intention scheduled. If you would like to schedule a Mass intention, stop in the parish office, or call 513-471-7741, ext. 0.

GIVING TREES*November: A Time for Giving Thanks

A great way of giving our thanks at St. Dominic is by participating in our Annual Giving Tree program. This weekend, November 23 and 24, three trees decorated with gift tags will be at the church doors. Each tag designates a person who, without help from us, would have a meager Christmas. The ages on the tags range from infants to adults. The gifts need to be returned on the weekend of December 14 and 15, so that they can be sorted and delivered after 11:30 a.m. Mass.

A PERFECT CHRISTMAS GIFT

Christmas is coming soon! Consider purchasing a Gathering Place paver for the person in your life who is hard to shop for. Pavers are the gift that lets your mother, father, grandparent, child, or spouse know how cherished they are. Order forms are available at the doors of church or in the Parish Office. The 4 x 8 bricks allow 3 lines with 13 characters per line and cost $40. The 8 x 8 pavers allow up to 6 lines with 13 characters per line and cost $75. You can also order bricks/pavers online through WeShare. Visit our website at www.stdominicdelhi.org and click the "Online Giving" link on the left side (scroll until you see Gathering Place Walkway Bricks). If you have any questions, call the Parish Office at 513-471-7741, ext. 0. The bricks are ordered twice a year, once in January and once in July.
