FR. BEN'S COLUMN*ADVENT

As you all may know, I am a very impatient priest, and I hate waiting for anything. I've always been that way. Some years ago, it was popular to say that Advent was a time of waiting. We are waiting for the coming of the Lord at Christmas, we are waiting for Christ to come at the end of time and, of course, we are waiting for the Lord to come to each of us at the end of our lives. You would think that Advent, the season of waiting, would be my least favorite time of the Church's year. But I love Advent. Why?

Because Advent is not a time of waiting at all, it is rather, a time of preparation. That's why the expectant Virgin Mary, Our Lady, is the image and model of Advent. I'm the oldest of my siblings, and so I can remember my mother expecting my twin sisters who are five years younger than me. I can certainly recall my sisters being pregnant, not to mention cousins and friends. Now while they were expecting, they weren't passively sitting by "waiting." Advent is like the time when we are waiting for a baby to arrive – how about that – and that's just what we are doing when waiting for the baby Jesus at Christmas.

When my sisters were expecting, they didn't sit by passively waiting for the stork to turn up. They were very actively preparing for the arrival of their child (between them, seven children actually). As well as constant doctors' visits, prenatal checks, ultrasound photos, rooms must be made ready, cots bought, prams, bedding, feeding utensils, food, diapers, clothes, and on, and on. Names must be considered; some people already enroll their children in the schools they hope they will attend. My sisters had to make small pointy hats and brooms and buy small cauldrons and black cats in preparation for their daughters.

Interestingly, family and friends get together and hold "showers" and provide presents in preparation for the arrival of the new child. We get ready for the coming of a child, we prepare, we are "expectant," hopeful, we are full of energy, and we are actively waiting. This is what Advent is supposed to be like for all of us. It is a time of spiritual preparation as we wait to receive Jesus. We prepare to meet Jesus in three ways: first at Christmas, when we remember He came to save us, and we receive Him into our hearts. Secondly, we turn our minds to the end of time, and we remember He will come again, not as a child but as a judge, so we need to get ready. And finally, we remind ourselves to prepare for Him because soon, we will face Him as our days on earth come to an end. Advent reminds us to be ready, to prepare, because Jesus is coming to us.

The Virgin Mary was prepared to receive the Lord into Her body because she had already prepared Her heart to receive Him. That's what Hail Full of Grace means. If grace was God's life in us and Mary was already full of grace, she could have no room for anyone but Jesus. She had no room for sin. And He came to her. She was waiting for Him by preparing for Him. She gave herself to Him completely so that even His flesh is made from her body, her blood flows through His heart. We are called to do the same. To wait for Jesus by preparing for Him.

IN MEMORIAM

Please pray for the souls of Terry Allgeyer and Mary Malone who died this past week. May they rest in the peace of the Lord.

TORCH DEADLINE CHANGE

The deadline for submitting articles for the Torch has changed. All articles must be submitted by the 5th of the month prior to publication. Articles can be mailed to the parish office, placed in the collection basket or emailed to parishoffice@stdominicdelhi.org.

FEAST OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION Mass Schedule

Monday, December 9
NO 6:10 a.m. Communion Service
7:30 a.m.

December 8 is the Second Sunday of Advent, so the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary is transferred to Monday, December 9. Previously, when the date was transferred, it was not a Holy Day of Obligation. The Parish Office will be closed on Monday, December 9.

DAILY MASS SCHEDULE CHANGE

Beginning January 1, 2025, the Daily Mass Schedule will be as follows:
